Meet the man who inspired the Irish to love God and the world to love Ireland!

Meet St. Patrick through this powerful one-man drama of The Confession of St. Patrick. St. Patrick inspires his audience as he speaks of his life and the enfolding dynamic ministry his life had upon the people of Ireland. Born into a wealthy Roman family in Britain about 400 AD, St. Patrick tells of his kidnapping by pirates at age 16 and his subsequent encounter with Christ. Transformed through his faith in Jesus, St. Patrick went on to minister as a frontier missionary to the very people who had enslaved him.

Written by St. Patrick himself in about 450 AD, The Confession is the first known document written in Ireland, and contains over 200 quotes from Scripture.

“Roger Nelson brings St. Patrick to life with joy and passion. It is great theatre, like Christian Shakespeare, giving the audience an experience they will remember the rest of their lives.”

THE LATE DAVE GEISLER
Writer for Focus on the Family

“Excellent presentation!”
THOMAS O’GRADY,
Columban Fathers, Ireland

“Roger Nelson offers a historically accurate depiction of the monk who evangelized Ireland.”

CHARISMA MAGAZINE

“Roger Nelson portrayed beautifully Patrick’s zeal for the Gospel of Christ and his affection for the people to whom he proclaimed that good news.”

DANIEL J. CONDON
Pastor, St. Patrick’s Church, Mt. Morris, NY

“I commend Roger’s gifted ministry to all.”

JACK HAYFORD
Pastor, Church on the Way, Van Nuys, CA

“Roger Nelson’s Confession of St. Patrick made St. Patrick come alive and gave me new insights about the history and life of this saint.”

MICHAEELEN JANTZER, OSB
Basilica of St. James, Jamestown, ND
